

Anderson Triggs: A Compounding Pharmacy & Clinical Laboratory Expert

January 23, 2017

January 23, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Triggs Global Management & Anderson Triggs Experience Rapid Growth

Triggs Global Management, led by its President & CEO Anderson Triggs of Palm City, FL, provides business consulting services, especially focused on the areas of specialty compounding pharmacy, prescription drug wholesale and clinical laboratory.

Pharmacy compounding refers to creating personalized drugs and medications, which may be different for each person.

The for-profit company and its predecessor have been active for nearly a decade, successfully providing consulting services to businesses, including statutory and regulatory guidance for both federal and state law, operational workflow, advertising and management.

At trade and medical conventions, the company acquired a wide range of clients and established a well-sounded and reliable chain of coordination and communication with various physicians, pharmacies, wholesale prescription drug businesses and laboratories throughout the country.

All the activities of the company are strictly monitored and evaluated. The risks in the compounding pharmacy industry are quite serious and there is a high level of reliability and credibility with the company.

Anderson Triggs and Triggs Global Management have emerged as a reckoning force in the compounding pharmacy and clinical laboratory world.

Emphasis is on quality control in areas of emphasis in hormone replacement, preventative medicine and injectable vitamin, mineral and amino-acid supplements. The founder, Anderson Triggs puts great emphasis on discipline, honesty and credibility in all operations and activities.

The company is based in Palm City, Florida, providing services to business and individual professionals across the United States. The company has provided successful services for both sterile and non-sterile compounding pharmacies as well as clinical laboratories and prescription drug wholesalers.

The founder of the company, Anderson "Andy" Triggs was in the US Army from 1997 to 2014. After leaving the Army, Anderson Triggs created another company named Suppressive Fire, with a focus on firearms and firearm components.

Triggs Global Management was founded in 2011 and helped Anderson L Triggs acquire in-field experience and skills, adding to his business management degrees

###

For more information about Triggs Global Management, contact the company here:Triggs Global ManagementAnderson Triggs

Triggs Global Management

Website: <http://www.andersontriggs.com/>