January 18, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

A new website offering discount hotel and airfare, is poised to be the next big player in online travel. This website is like no other, as they offer inventory directly from wholesale suppliers to members who sign-up. This enables users to substantially save money compared to other major hotel booking sites.

As a promotional launch, the company's founder, Dr. Szilard Nathan Vegas, is extending free memberships, for a limited time, on Hotelsdifferently.com. He implores travelers to try the site, compare, and see the amazing deals that are being offered on <https://www.hotelsdifferently.com/>.

According Dr. Vegas, "our aim is to help travelers from all walks of life, be able to see the world and be enriched by it. Moreover, it is my goal to enable people to afford better hotels for the same price as competitors or the same hotels for less."

With their unique model of curating deeply discounted travel deals, this company hopes to change how people book travel. HotelsDifferently.com boasts a fast and easy to navigate website, where clients can search for flights, book hotels, and even find discount activities. Unlike other booking sites who have affiliations with a limited number of airlines, HotelsDifferently.com is connected with an aggregate supplier, which has a network of essentially every airline. This creates a vast access to flight deals around the world.

HotelsDifferently also prides itself on facilitating great discounts with other hotel booking websites, putting rivalry aside, and prioritizing the clients' needs. On HotelsDifferently.com, customers can find deals, coupons, and discounts that competitor websites are offering. This ensures clients can maximize savings for all travel related needs.

Additionally, HotelsDifferently.com ensures this is a seamless process by providing customer service on their website and social media accounts, which has further helped the company rise from a small affiliate marketer to a multi-network enterprise.

?We are humbled at how fast our brand is rising. We credit this to the thousands of clients who come to search for cheap flights and luxury discount hotels on our website. In the past few months, we have seen a spike in the number of people searching for our services. And that is why we have briefly opened up free memberships to help people experience the difference we offer.?

?We are here to change the way the travel industry works and this is a great opportunity for travelers to sign up and save,? Dr. Vegas stated.
