Helen Kamrowski believes that many people do not have an understanding that they are paying unnecessary taxes on not only their ordinary income but also on their Social Security benefits. Mrs. Kamrowski suggests that some simple changes to tax strategies can help save on a yearly basis and even thousands in the long run.

Helen Kamroski has been a professional tax preparer since 2003. Because taxes can be complex and difficult, many people have a hard time understanding where her passion for doing taxes comes from ? she loves helping people. Partnering with The Diamond Group gives her an opportunity to help even more people create a successful financial future.

The company states that customers can contact them to learn more about the program or to schedule a tax consultation; the filing deadline for income taxes is April 18.
