January 19, 2017

January 19, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Cloud Custom Solutions (CCS), leading cloud-technology and custom software development firm based out of Phoenix, Arizona, is excited to appoint Jewel Green as the new Director of Operations.

"Jewel joined our multi-faceted team as Client and Project Success Partner, and has now taken on the important role of Director of Operations. With elaborate projects in the deep development phase, a strong team lead at the helm of it all is key," stated Ben Fatola, CEO of Cloud Custom Solutions.

In the short time since Jewel has joined, she's brought her extensive project management experience on board, making sure CCS's diverse teams are on track, accountable and pushing to meet deadlines for their elite clientele.

Mr. Fatola added, "On the client side it's key to make sure client requests are handled promptly and sensitively. With a strong background in Agile methodology, requirements gathering, gap analysis, and risk management, Jewel has the ability to deeply understand client needs, develop strong client partnerships, and convey each client's unique requirements to the development team."

"As the company grows, it is imperative to bring the right people on board to drive forward change in the direction you want to see the company going," concluded Mr. Fatola.
