

Auto Body Collision Repair Shop Expands Service Area To San Angelo Texas

January 27, 2017

January 27, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Auto Body Collision Repair Shop has recently announced that they have expanded their dent removal and other auto body services to the San Angelo, Texas area. A spokesperson for the company recently announced their new service area, stating that customers in San Angelo can now contact them for additional information.

"We are pleased to announce this service area expansion," says the company spokesperson. "We want customers in this new area to know that we do everything in our power to ensure that your experience with us will be a positive one."

The auto body shop in San Angelo offers a wide range of repairs and enhancements that will help to return vehicles to their pre-accident state. The company works with automobile owners who have been involved in accidents, repairing scratches and dents, and offers auto detailing for those who want to improve the look of their cars or trucks as well.

"Our customers are the backbone of our business," says the company spokesperson. "We know that without them, we wouldn't be expanding; we wouldn't even be in business. Because of this, we will always go above and beyond to ensure complete satisfaction."

The company has been providing auto repair and detailing for more than four decades. During the past 40 plus years, they state that they have expanded to different regions around their home base, and that they hope this is not the last service area expansion that customers can expect from them. Recently adding Odessa, Texas, to their service areas, the company now provides service to customers in a wide area around their original shop. They state that adding these new service locations helps them to ensure that they are offering their customers the very best in services, as well as in products and repairs. They work with a wide range of vehicles, offering services that they state are as affordable as they are high quality.
