January 26, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Peoria, Ill.-Joan's Trophy and Plaque Co. has been manufacturing trophies in Illinois since 1970 and has continued to offer their services as a well-established awards company to this day. One of their latest projects was to design an award of significance for The Center for Prevention of Abuse.

"We were able to honor a longtime volunteer while also giving out the award to two very deserving people," CEO of The Center for Prevention of Abuse said. "We think Joan's Trophy and Plaque Co. did a fantastic job."

The Center for Prevention of Abuse has been helping individuals eliminate interpersonal violence and conflict since 1975 and aims to provide judgement-free help to those in need. They offer aid to victims of all types of abuse and also aim to educate on abuse prevention.

"It was a pleasure for our company to make the award," Brice Gustin said. "We wanted to give them something to signify importance of what they do."
