Mobile, Ala. ? Mr. Rooter Plumbing of Mobile, a plumbing service in Mobile, AL, is excited to provide its customers with insider tips to get through National Bath Safety Month.

National Bath Safety Month, which comes around every January, is recognized as the key time of the year to educate homeowners on the do?s and don?ts of bath safety. The goal is to start the year off right by decreasing the chances of falls and accidents in the bathroom. Mr. Rooter Plumbing of Mobile has a few tips to combat these types of dilemmas.

?We love it when National Bath Safety Month comes around because it gives us a great chance to inform the public of the risks and factors that go into taking showers and baths, along with the easiest, most low-cost ways to prevent them,? Russell Yeckley said.

When it comes to bathroom safety, a small purchase can make a huge difference in a comfortable bathroom experience and a slip or fall on the hard floor. Mr. Rooter plumbers in mobile urges homeowners to invest in low-cost products like non-slip bath mats, shower curtain liners, and handrails to ensure safety when climbing in and out of the tub. Even basic items including non-skid rugs and shower shelving can prove to be beneficial in the upcoming months.

The issue of bath safety may sound humorous, but indeed it's a hot topic to beware of. The plumbing in Mobile, AL, company knows best when it comes to home maintenance, so it's highly recommended to take heed of the tips provided in order to have a successful, and safe, 2017.

It's our goal to get this information to as many people in Mobile as possible," Russell Yeckley said. "They're simple purchases that can make all the difference in a person's safety and well-being."
