Mr. Rooter Plumbing in Savannah, GA Shows 5 Affordable Ways to Avoid Bathroom Hazards

January 26, 2017

January 26, 2017 -
Savannah, Ga.- Mr. Rooter Plumbing of Savannah, an established plumbing in Savannah, GA, focuses on consumer safety via supplying information on 5 low-priced items to boost the safety of your washroom.

While January is National Bath Safety Month, Mr. Rooter thinks washroom safety and security must be considered year round.

"It should be comforting that our business truly cares for our communities health," Mark Jacobs said.

From shower drape linings, non-skid carpets, shower shelving, handrails, to non-slip bathmats, Mr. Rooter shows that mounting the right inexpensive shower room safety upgrades could lessen washroom hazards.

Mr. Rooter Plumbers of Savannah GA was developed in 1970 with the approach that customer care a top priority. The Mr. Rooter team is an extension of this viewpoint and considers respect and safety as a keystone of the business.

" Mr. Rooter actually cares about what they're doing," claimed Mark Jacobs. "The service is wonderful, we don't leave a mess, and also we really are considerate to our constomers."
