January 26, 2017

January 26, 2017 -
Taylorsville, Utah ? Express Employment Professionals, a leading employment center in Taylorsville, UT, is seeking unique ways to impact the job market in 2017.

The Express team is working hard to ensure that each and every citizen has means to a quality job whether it be for some extra money or to meet their needs. Despite the tough job market in Taylorsville, Express knows that its services will prove to be beneficial in the coming months.

?New year, new career, and new solutions!? Express Taylorsville Branch Manager Mark Roundy said. ?We want to ensure that our clients and job seekers get off on the right foot in 2017, so we?re doing everything in our power to make that possible.?

This year, Express wants to really dig deep past the surface of the employment issues in the city and analyze exactly what needs to be done to make impactful changes. With this plan in place, the Express team will be able to improve its solutions beyond measure and put more people in good jobs. The work ethic of Express truly makes it one of the most valuable temp agencies in Taylorsville, UT.

?Going above and beyond in 2017 is the prime goal for our Express team,? Roundy said. ?Unemployment will be a thing of the past once we execute our strategies for the New Year.?
