

Singapore Employment Agency Announces Maid Levy Openings

February 03, 2017

February 03, 2017 -

Universal Employment Agency Pte Ltd recently announced that they have several openings for maids in Singapore. The company states that they currently have maid positions open in a variety of different businesses and states that those who are interested should contact them to learn more about the application process and to potentially schedule an interview with a hiring manager.

"We help to match qualified workers with the industries that need them," says Edmund, a spokesperson for Universal Employment Agency. "Our goal is to ensure that businesses are staffed with the most qualified individuals and that those individuals are placed in organizations that best fit with their unique skill sets. While we have a number of opportunities, we are currently searching for qualified maids to fill a number of needs in the area."

Universal Employment Agency Pte Ltd was founded in 1986 and serves as a professional consultancy, specializing in the placement of foreign domestic workers. Most workers come from Indonesia and the Philippines.

The company states that they are now filling positions for maid levy services for a number of businesses in Singapore. They state that there is an increasing number of employers and foreign domestic helpers each year that engage them for placement services, and that most of their business comes from referrals of businesses or individuals that they have placed. The company spokesperson states that this is a testament to their dedication to complete satisfaction by all parties and says that they plan to continue to follow along the same lines of quality services for employers and employees.

"We are unsurpassed in customer satisfaction," says the company spokesperson. "Our experience helps us to ensure that we always place the right workers with the perfect employers, and we will always ensure the satisfaction of everyone involved."

The company states that anyone looking for a position as a maid can contact them to learn more about the opportunities that are currently available and to schedule an interview. Individuals who are looking for employment opportunities or businesses who are looking for qualified staff members can contact the company directly or learn more about their placement services by visiting them on their official website at <http://www.universal.sg>.
