January 31, 2017 -
From the mountains of Virginia all the way to the coast of North Carolina Honeysuckle Events has won great praise for delivering floral designs and event styling for weddings. Recently, the company celebrated winning the 'Best Styled Look' award from Accent Décor Inc. in their #AccentDecorAfrica floral design contest.

2017 seems set to be a great year for leading Virginia and North Carolina wedding floral design and event styling company Honeysuckle Events. Backing up rave reviews by Brides from all over the Southeast, recent features from magazines and wedding-focused websites include Virginia Bride, Outer Banks Wedding, Fly Away Bride, The Frosted Petticoat and Boho Weddings. Honeysuckle Events recently announced they have won the hard-fought award for 'Best Styled Look' in the #AccentDecorAfrica Instagram Style Challenge. Along with the prestige that comes along with winning, the company also claimed a $1000 prize.

?I love doing styled shoots because it allows me to have total creative freedom; I have an idea and I run with it,? commented Shelley Boyer, owner of Honeysuckle Events. ?I knew that I wanted to do several floral arrangements including a really large headdress, which I hadn't attempted yet. I also wanted to include some flowers that are native to Africa, so I started with protea, using the Banksia, Pincushion, and Queen varieties.?

According to the company, they are happy to offer a wide range of floral design and event styling services including popular highlights like garden style bridal bouquets, flower crowns, ceremony and reception decor, and even vintage rentals to help bring a couple's vision of the dream wedding to life.

Feedback for Honeysuckle Events services continues to be passionate across the board.

Rebecca, a bride from the summer of 2016 recently said in a five star review, ?Shelley is amazing! Not only did she do a beautiful job on my bouquets, but she worked within my budget & had the flowers delivered in perfect timing. I sent Shelley my inspiration photo for my bridal bouquet, the bouquets she made with this in mind were even better than I had hoped for. My bridesmaids and I agree that our bouquets really brought my boho look together, they were the perfect touch. I highly recommend Honeysuckle Events to all brides, especially a girl who wants something out of the ordinary! Check out her Instagram account @honeysuckleeventsobx to see how amazing her work is.?
