Mojo Global, a Scottsdale, Arizona based company, has made headlines of late with its innovative lead generation systems. Co-founder of the company, Cory Michael Sanchez presents predictable leads made easy, a system that is designed to help entrepreneurs and marketers to gain business leads.

"We have trained tens of thousands of entrepreneurs to date in more than 30 different countries on how to attract high paying prospects," says Sanchez. "Our Predictable Leads Made Easy is just one more way to show you that getting those leads does not have to be difficult, and we can walk you through the process."

Sanchez and Ira Rosen, the other co-founder, are winners of the Phoenix Business Journal's Marketer of the Year award for their LinkedIn lead generation system. The pair currently has a number of Mojo Global success stories which can be viewed on the Mojo Global website, where entrepreneurs from all over the world offer insights into how the system has worked for them, and the number of quality leads that they have gained from it.

"If you want to build your business," says Sanchez, "then you need a system that is going to make lead generation easy for you. That's the beauty behind this system. It quite literally does the work for you, giving you time to deal with the customers or clients that you already have, and ensuring that you are providing the best in customer service."

Sanchez says that a recent 5-star client review by Daniel C. offers a look at just how easy the system is to operate and how lucrative it can be for businesses. The company co-founder states that businesses can easily close lucrative deals through scaling and automating seven figure sales funnels. LinkedIn awarded Sanchez and Rosen with the Top One Percent of Influencers around the world, stating that they have cracked the code on LinkedIn for those looking to add multiple contacts and laser targeted leads.

Cory Michael Sanchez is considered by many to be one of the most respected internet marketing strategy experts and is the chief architect of the award winning software programs offered by Mojo Global. More about Sanchez and the company's new lead generation systems can be seen on their company website.
