February 06, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Sacramento, California based Auto Body Collision Repair Shop has announced that they are expanding their repair center to Modesto. The auto shop offers a number of collision repairs and detailing services, and recently stated that their business has grown substantially and that they are now offering their services to customers in outlying areas.

"We are very pleased with how our business has grown," says a spokesperson for the collision repair center. "Customers in Modesto can now come to us for the best in auto body repair, and we do everything possible to ensure your complete satisfaction."

The company states that they provide a number of services designed to return vehicles to pre-accident states. In addition to collision repair, the auto shop also provides detailing services for customers who want to enhance how their car or truck looks. They work with a variety of vehicles in all models, years, and sizes.

"From auto body dent removal to just adding aftermarket products to make your vehicle really stand out, we're the best in the business and now the best in Modesto," says the company spokesperson.

Auto Body Collision Repair Shop has been in business for more than 40 years, and the company states that they are in the process of expanding to various regions around their base in Sacramento, with hopes of eventually reaching most of the nation with their professional services. The company spokesperson states that they have recently added Odessa, Texas to their list of service areas and says that their expansion into Modesto will certainly not be their last.

Those interested in learning more about the auto body shop Modesto residents can go to, may want to visit the company's official website. The company says that they will continue to add new service locations as their business continues to grow and says that they go above and beyond what customers expect in order to ensure a positive experience. They state that anyone in the Modesto area with vehicle damage can contact them to schedule a consultation and learn more about the range of services they now provide in that area.
