

Edina Chosen For Unique New Art Gallery

February 17, 2017

February 17, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

artbarn52, a unique, new art gallery recently opened in Edina just off Edina Industrial Blvd, in JGM Properties' Pakwa Office Park. artbarn52 is a new home for selected artists, allowing customers to explore an artist's work, separate from their studios. With biographies including their approach to their work and explanations of their creative process. Art lovers have the opportunity to get to know the artists on a personal level.

Owner/founder Susan Kaulbars has been a member of the arts and custom framing community for over 15 years, focused on designing custom framing of everything from family treasures, military collections, corporate art, as well as, and designing framing for artists to further their individual expressions.

"I opened artbarn52 to provide a special place where people who love art can comfortably experience a piece of art without any pressure. We present a professional gallery experience in an atmosphere that welcomes both established art lover and novice viewers 52 weeks a year," says Susan Kaulbars.

Susan opened Framing Solutions Custom Design studio in August 2015, and expanded into artbarn52 when she relocated to her new Edina Location in Pakwa Business Park. Susan offers personal, one-on-one designs for any art or collectable pieces art lovers want to preserve.

"Personalizing the frame truly showcases and enhances your art so it reflects the character of the person, as well as the art. Working with the elements of color, style, texture, content or any unique aspects of the art is a challenge I relish," says Kaulbars.
