

DuoCircle Releases Cloud Based Email Archiving Service

February 17, 2017

February 17, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

SAN DIEGO, CA ? DuoCircle, the leading provider of hosted email, spam filtering and SMTP services is proud to announce the introduction of cloud-based email archiving. DuoCircle brings their expertise in turnkey email solutions by providing a regulatory compliant email archiving service that is built for companies ranging in size from single user SMBs to large enterprise deployments. Email archiving is a critical safeguard and best practice for any type of business, not just those in highly-regulated industries. The DuoCircle Archive automatically preserves electronic communications in an immutable format, making them instantly searchable and accessible in the cloud.

The CEO of DuoCircle Brad Slavin said ?The archive can be deployed company-wide within minutes without plug-ins, agents or additional infrastructure. The archive is a perfect alternative for Office 365 email archiving, by providing businesses with the tools and processes to prepare them for information discovery requests, litigation or eDiscovery.?

A recent study conducted by Osterman Research revealed that businesses without email archives pay up to $535,000 in additional legal fees. Brad Slavin says, ?With fast and accurate search, the DuoCircle Archive helps businesses quickly locate, classify and place legal holds on relevant information during the discovery process which translates to huge cost savings and peace of mind for our customers.?

DuoCircle offer Enterprise Email solutions tailored for the small business market. Live customer support is 24/7/365 and their service offers robust email protection.
