

Mount McKinney LLC Announces Participation In National Entrepreneurship Week

February 09, 2017

February 09, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Jacksonville, Florida based Mount McKinney LLC has announced their participation in the National Entrepreneurship Week on February 15 to 22, 2017. The company offers services to entrepreneurs including web development and design as well as expert marketing strategies.

John McKinney, founder and owner of Mount McKinney LLC, says, "It's going to be a great week filled with interesting information that will help you with your business."

National Entrepreneurship Week allows entrepreneurs from around the nation to participate in a scheduled programming of events and in person panels. Conversations can be followed and engaged via Twitter and on various company's Facebook pages. The event includes a variety of topics that can be attended in person or via webcast. From daily inspiration to topics covering new business strategies and technologies, McKinney states that it will be a week filled with activity that business owners should consider attending.

Topics will vary but McKinney states that anyone in business should find something of interest. The event will cover data and how important it is to a business as well as web traffic patterns which give insights into the best time to offer ads and offers to customers in order to get the best return. John McKinney states that they plan to take part in the event, which is slated to become an annual offering.

McKinney states that his company is a bit different than others. He says that he and his entire team believe that being honest is what is most important in business and states that his company will never sell something that a customer does not need. From website redesign to initial website building and launch, Mount McKinney offers a plethora of services that are designed to perfectly suit customer needs.

"We can build in whatever platform you want, including WordPress, Wix, Squarespace and more," McKinney states. "Our goal is to ensure that you are completely satisfied and we go above and beyond to ensure that satisfaction. Our business depends on your satisfaction, so we will always do whatever it takes."
