June 10, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

GKIC-Tampa.com, operating from Bradenton, FL, is offering a free gift worth $633.91 to anyone who signs up to their system. Those that do will be able to receive various money making marketing tools that they will be able to use in order to improve their online business and marketing techniques. GKIC is well know for their strategies and marketing tips and it is believed that this free gift will be happily received by many.

"This booster business toolkit we've put together here at GKIC insider circle is just about the most powerful, profit supercharger ever seen in Dan's 35 years of being our consultant", says Al Mendoza from GKIC-Tampa.com. "And the real looney tunes aspect of this is that we're offering it to you right now on a proverbial silver platter for free."

To make the promotional offer even more interesting, GKIC is also offering two months of GKIC Gold membership for free. This means that people will receive instant access to the area reserved for members only, as well as being able to enjoy two copies of the popular No BS Newsletter. Thanks to the members, people will also be able to receive two copies of the Swipe & Deploy, which has been shown to triple someones revenue if they use the tips just once per year. Plus, it includes two gold audio CDs, which are also packed with great and applicable marketing ideas on direct response advertising and direct marketing. Finally, people will receive the No BS Income Explosion Guide and CD, which helps new members in particular to get started with the strategies.

The tool is designed specifically for small business marketers. Through three webinars, they will receive 13 direct response marketing principles that can immediately be put in place. They will also learn how to write the highest quality advertisements that have a huge impact both online and offline. GKIC then explains what the 10 big breakthroughs are that are needed in business life. Finally, they are provided with various business strategies that will help them propel their business forward.

"Thanks to our webinars, any entrepreneur will learn that they can multiply income by at least ten times almost overnight", says Dan Kennedy from GKIC. "In them, I hold dynamic discussions with Bill Glazer and Lee Melteer, discussing things such as key advertising, marketing, promotion, entrepreneurial and phenomenon strategies. We also answer some of the most frequently asked questions about these strategies."

As the free gift includes two months of free gold membership, various other bonuses and gifts are offered. This includes free live call in times with the GKIC experts and a continuously updated million dollar resource directory. The goal for GKIC is to get people hooked to their strategies and marketing tips and tools. In return for their services, they want to receive a commitment to watch all the webinars, read the newsletters and listen to the CDs. The company believes that those with an open mind who are ready to change will be able to do so through the program.
