Star Infiniti, the company of the famous 3 piece Ceramic Knife Set, now offers all customers 5 free digitally delivered cookbooks entitled "35 Easy, Healthy, Low Calorie Recipes for Every Day of the Week", for every purchase of the Ceramic Knife Set on Amazon. The Bonus PDF is delivered electronically via email to all purchases.

The 5 cookbooks are subdivided into Healthy Breakfast, Healthy Lunch, Healthy Dinner, Healthy Snacks and Healthy Dessert. Thus, all 5 will be received by the customers who purchased the ceramic knife set. It includes a variety of different dishes from the simple pancakes for breakfast, a pasta for lunch, healthy burger wraps for dinner, delectable non-fat parfaits and a guilt free dip such as sun dried tomato. The 35 recipes are written in such a way that it is easy to understand and to follow. The digitally formatted cookbooks are easily stored onto the customer's computers and other digital devices, allowing them to easily access it wherever they are.

The cookbooks feature not only the ingredients and directions on how to cook the dishes but it also includes how many calories per serving each recipe is made of. The calories stated in the recipes make it easier for the customers to track how much calories they have consumed for the day. Thus, making it a very good way to plan ahead for customers who are on a strict meal plan for the whole week. Each cookbook features 7 recipes each.

"We want to add value to our ceramic knife set and wanted to share with our buyers how to whip up easy recipes that are healthy and good for the whole week. The cookbooks are divided into 5 thus a wide range of recipes to choose from," says Esther, a company representative.

Star Infiniti's Ceramic Knife Set is currently available on the number one marketplace online, Amazon.com and has gained popularity over time. The Ceramic Knife Set comes in 3 different sizes and colors with matching blade covers for safety. Shoppers who purchased the ceramic knife set will get a free copy of the cookbooks delivered digitally through email.
