June 09, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Ryan Richard, spokesperson of WallDecalsAndArt, announced that they are now selling their limited supply line of chalkboard label stickers on Amazon. Their latest product comes in a pack of 36 premium vinyl heavy-duty waterproof peel and sticker chalkboard labels, and customers will also be provided with 1 chalk marker.

Ryan stated that customers will be able to use these labels on almost anything, as long as it has a smooth surface. A few common examples of where chalkboard label stickers can be used is for labeling sugar, coffee, rice, canned goods, a cookie jar, daycare supplies and many others. The company said that one of the first things customers will notice when using their latest product is that they are extremely easy to peel and stick. They also made the following statement:

"There are many others selling something similar, poor quality, and usually from China. That is not what you will get with our product! We are family owned and take pride in what we sell. Also, all of our products are made right here in the USA! So you know you will get a HIGH QUALITY product that is made to last."

Ryan said that the reason why they have so much faith in their chalkboard labels for jars is because they are made with premium vinyl. Besides making them ideal for virtually any situation, as well as being easy to remove, this vinyl is also very durable. The company also includes step-by-step instructions on how to use a chalkboard label so that customers can get the best experience when labeling their items.

WallDecalsAndArt have also received many positive reviews from customers on Amazon. For example, one customer had the following to say about the product:

"These chalkboard label stickers are so creative and just awesome! I bought these for my mason jars and my food containers and they look amazing! I am really glad I went with this one because it came with a chalkboard pen and they are all the same shape, now I don't have to worry about my OCD kicking in, lol!"

Ryan said that his company stands 100% behind their products, and that includes their chalkboard label stickers. Besides being extremely durable and easy to use, they have stated that their label stickers are also non-toxic and waterproof. The company added that if any customer is not completely satisfied with their purchase, they will give them a full refund without any questions asked. However, WallDecalsAndArt feels that the customers will most likely be very happy with the purchase because of the high quality standards that have been manufactured into these label stickers, as well as a great customer service that they provide.

WallDecalsAndArt also sells other products that their customers might find useful, such as their Chalkboard Sheet Slate and Dry Erase Sticker Board.
