Baubelle Announces New Birthday Present Bracelet On Amazon

March 01, 2017

March 01, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Cheyenne, Wyoming based jewelry manufacturer, Baubelle, has released a line of bracelets onto the Amazon marketplace. The company recently stated that their Be Kind Bracelet is the perfect gift for upcoming birthdays.

Sarah Evren, a spokesperson with the company says, "You want to get the special lady in your life something wonderful for her birthday. Our bracelets offer the perfect birthday gift idea."

Evren says that the bracelets are designed to offer encouragement to women through their messages. She states that because of these empowering messages, the bracelets are perfect for teenagers and adults as a gift for their birthday, graduation, Mother's Day or other special occasions.

The bracelet line is available in rose and white gold and plated with 18 karat gold. The messages are designed to give women hope and inspiration, and each bracelet can be stacked with others like it to offer multiple messages in one. Messages are displayed on the charms and Evren says that all of the company's products are high quality.

"One reason these bracelets are perfect for giving as a birthday present is because they are hypoallergenic, so you won't have to worry about the recipient having allergies and getting irritated when wearing them," Evren states. "Also, we guarantee that you won't have any discoloration on the skin because they are designed never to tarnish or rust."

Evren says that charms are available to add to the bracelet with the words "thankful, brave, happy, true, kind, strong, or compassionate." The bracelets are stackable so the company states that all of the messages can be worn at the same time. They are shipped to gift recipients in an attractive turquoise and gold box and the box is designed with a slide out feature that is just as attractive according to Evren.

The company states that their sales have increased since the initial launch of these bracelets on Amazon.com, and says that they fully expect those sales to increase even more over the next few months as many special occasions such as Mother's Day, graduations, proms, and various birthdays approach. Those interested in learning more about the bracelet line can do so on the Amazon marketplace or on Baubelle's official website.
