Philadelphia, Pa. ? Spike?s Trophies, a leading manufacturer of trophies, medals, plaques and crystal awards in Philadelphia, PA, has just been honored with the Large Business Retailer of the Year Award at the Awards and Personalization Association (APA) Awards Gala in Las Vegas, NV. After a successful year, Spike?s is more than deserving of the honor and proud to be amongst the best award suppliers in the Industry nationally.

Nominated by the supplier members of APA, the Large Business Retailer of the Year Award, given by the Awards and Personalization Association at every year?s International Awards & Personalization Expo, is the premier signifier of the accomplishments and success of an awards business. It symbolizes unmatched integrity, high quality practices, and a strong commitment to community involvement. Spike?s Trophies has exhibited all these traits and more thanks to its fast and dependable service.

"We are humbled and honored to win the Awards and Personalization Association's Retailer of the Year Award for the second time," owner Keith Baldwin said.

Spike?s Trophies strives yearly to provide clients with the tools necessary to recognize brands, identity, and most of all, people. The awards business is an exciting industry filled with changes at every turn, so staying relevant can at times be difficult for businesses.

As a provider of recognition items in Philadelphia, PA, Spike?s Trophies is constantly brainstorming unique product ideas, while introducing technology, to ensure that it remains up-to-date with the latest award trends. An unrivaled sense of urgency matched with excellent customer service made Spike?s a prime candidate for the award.

?The award would not have been possible without the support of our supplier partners, my fellow retailers for sharing their knowledge and best practices, and my partners and employees for their hard work and dedication,? Baldwin said.
