?Sometimes lessons in leadership are much too complicated. At the end of the day, we all have that little voice that tells us how to be a leader--it's whether or not we cultivate and listen to that voice. Mark Villareal does a great job of taking experiences many of us had as children and directly applying them in lessons on how to be a great leader. The anecdotes and stories that the author weaves through the book make it such an easy and entertaining read while applying those stories for great leadership lessons.? ? John C.

?In Leadership Lessons from Mom, Mark Villareal delivers a stunning book filled with masterful storytelling that takes readers on a deeply profound journey. He has a unique ability to have anyone smiling as they read it while giving them relevant insights into their own life and how they can expand their leadership skills to the next level. Practical, moving and even a tear jerker at times. This is not your ordinary business book. A must read for all women rising up in their careers.? ? Cindy Ashton
