February 21, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Dr. Robert Garofalo, offers skilled and attentive dental care to adult and pediatric patients throughout the area. Patients from Stirling, Berkeley Heights, Warren, Long Hill, Gillette and many others.

Stirling NJ: Stirling Valley Dental Associates and Dr. Robert Garofalo are pleased to announce the launch of their new website. One of the elements of the new site and the dental practice is his No Waiting Policy. Dr. Garofalo often offers same-day appointments for fillings and other quick restorative treatments. The doctor has two decades of experience, with expertise in many procedures and treatments. Dr. Garofalo is dedicated to providing custom care for each patient, in order to achieve optimal outcomes and superior results.

Robert J. Garofalo, Stirling dentist provides care for children and adults in the local region. His procedures and expertise range from dental checkup to treatment of dental phobics and bruxism. Other areas of treatment include Invisalign orthodontics and advanced periodontal procedures, restorative and cosmetic treatments, crowns, bridges, cosmetic bonding and porcelain veneers, dental implants and professional whitening. Chronic teeth grinding is addressed with advanced and effective solutions to assist in preventing more serious medical and oral health issues from developing.

According to a spokesperson for the dental practice, "Dr. Garofalo is dedicated to providing custom care for each patient, focusing on the oral health needs, preferences and treatment objectives for every patient he treats to achieve optimal outcomes and superior results. He prides himself on his ability to perform simple and complex dental restorations and cosmetic treatments to help each patient feel more confident about the way they look. His approachable manner combined with his commitment to communication and patient education have made him a leading practitioner in New Jersey."

The new website launched by the dental practice cites four reasons for patients to choose an appointment with Dr. Garofalo. The booking process is easy to complete with a flexible schedule to suit patients who find it difficult to manage an appointment during regular business hours. The experience of Dr. Garofalo is another positive feature of the practice. A best fee guarantee is attractive to anyone with budget constraints.
