

CarCover.com Launches New Business Promotion

February 22, 2017

February 22, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Car Cover offers a 60% off store sale throughout the month of March. The promotion is to celebrate the new business.

CarCover.com and Isaac Williams are pleased to announce the launch of their new goal-driven company which offers the best inventory of car cover products in thousands of different styles and sizes. Car owners know that protecting their prize vehicles is a key element in retaining the value of the possession. The most important factor of the cover is its quality. The company puts together the best materials to make long-lasting and innovative products.

The inventory of products include car covers for every single car or truck imaginable in various qualities for different purposes. The knowledgeable and experienced team associated with the company is in place to offer outstanding service and fast delivery. The company is very customer driven and cherishes long-lasting relationships with customers, in order to maintain a special bond. Customers are satisfied by the receipt of top-of-the-line products, five-star customer service and an unbeatable price.

According to a spokesperson for the company, "We have various reasons for which our customers appreciate our services. These include free and fast shipping. Most of our orders are delivered within three business day. Shipping is always free. We also offer a guarantee that our car cover prices are the best in the market. We not only match prices on similar items, but offer an extra ten percent discount. Another guarantee that we offer is perfect fit for each and every vehicle."

With a quarter century in the industry, the quality and durability of the products are unparalleled. An unlimited lifetime warranty is offered on all covers. The hassle-free, 30-day money back return policy is a benefit to assure customer satisfaction. The team of experts is available via email, live chat or telephone every day of the week. The website also features an interesting blog with articles about some of the top vehicles in automotive history.
