DanceCrazy.com, a company based in San Francisco, CA, has launched their brand new website. Their motto is "Buy today, dance tomorrow" and they hope that with their new line of dance videos, the world will learn to dance like pros. Thanks to their new website, they will be able to introduce their mastery systems to more people.

"We are so proud to have launched this new website", says David Salazar from DanceCrazy.com. "It really shows who we are and what we stand for. It is fun, sexy, beautiful and good for you, which is everything dance is as well. Thanks to the site, we expect to be able to reach far more people who can all learn so much from our various dance videos."

DanceCrazy.com offers a range of different dance videos. They are available both for people who have been dancing for years, but equally for those who have never danced before in their life. One very popular system is their Ballroom Dancing Mastery System. This is a seven DVD set, each DVD being two hours in length, made specifically for beginner ballroom dancers. Three ballroom dances are covered in this set, being the Foxtrot, the Waltz and the Rumba.

Another system they offer focuses specifically on salsa dancing. The Salsa Dance Mastery System includes five DVDs that teaches beginner and intermediate dancers the ins and outs of the beautiful and sexy salsa dance. The system shows close up angles of all the important moves, so that learners can really look fantastic as they go through the program. It also comes with dozens of variations on the different moves, so the dance can remain fresh and unique.

"Thanks to our systems, people can finally learn to dance without having to invest in expensive dance lessons", adds David Salazar. "So many people never learn how to dance because they are embarrassed to first go, believing they will not be good enough compared to others. With our systems, they can learn all the basics of the dances and more. That way, if they do ever decide to join a dance club, they will know they can join in with the best of them."

DanceCrazy.com offers a number of mastery systems, which allow people to learn all there is to know about the different dances. Besides salsa and ballroom, they also offer the bachata, a full starter kit (swing, salsa, merengue and bachata), wedding dances and more. They also have specific Latin dances (salsa, merengue, bachata, chacha, Latin & Cuban and even pilates for dancers), as well as specific ballroom dances (swing, rumba, waltz and foxtrot) and various other products, including salsa sauce kits for a cool salsa party.

The celebrate the launch of their website, DanceCrazy.com has placed a number of their mastery kits and other products on sale. Hence, the time to learn to dance is now, as the sale won't last forever. Dancing like a pro is now in everybody's reach thanks to these fantastic mastery classes.
