February 27, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

The best Thousand Oaks hair salon in California now offers expanded hours. The salon is now open on Sundays from 11 am to 4 pm.

Thousand Oaks CA: Pacific Breeze Salon and Melodi Calderwood are pleased to announce that their expanded hours now include five hours on Sundays. The professionals at the salon make a point of offering the best haircuts in the Thousand Oaks area. The stylist team is made of individuals who have many years of training and experience. They offer a specialty of color correction. In addition, they can offer new hairstyles to excite customers.

The best Thousand Oaks hair salon in California opened its doors in 2001. The mission from the beginning has been to create a place that is comfortable place affecting both stylists and clients. The mutually supportive environment eliminates some of the traditional, and sometimes negative, salon ambiance. In the fifteen years since the opening, the salon continues to demonstrate its mission by providing a warm and inviting atmosphere.

A spokesperson with the salon explained, "We offer lots of natural daylight and an island-inspired interior. Our décor is upscale, yet unpretentious. We want you to love our salon as much as we do. Our stylists have years of experience and training with experts in the field."

The professional stylists at the salon offer the top haircuts, styling and color in the area. They have years of training and experience. The stylists create the perfect fit and look for each client. The client is certain to look their best and leave the salon excited about the new hair style.

In addition to hair styling and color, the salon experts are proud to offer facial waxing services. These services include brow shaping and tinting, as well as lip and chin waxing. The extended hours helps every client in the area to enjoy the opportunity to experience the skills of the stylists. For any of the abilities which the stylists offer, the clients have access every day of the week.
