February 27, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

The well known carpet cleaning business based in Bradenton FL has now expanded its operations and is covering the Sarasota County and Sarasota FL region as well.

Bradenton Carpet Cleaner has recently gone under an expansion as their services will now also be available in Sarasota FL. The business is expanding from the current Bradenton, FL or Manatee county area to include Sarasota County and the general Sarasota FL area as well, and this will include residential and commercial carpet cleaning services.

Bradenton Carpet Cleaner is a full service commercial and residential carpet cleaning provider. Having over 25 years experience and a successful locally owned and operated Bradenton, FL company, Bradenton Carpet Cleaner provides high quality carpet, rug and upholstery cleaning services.

According to Ken Webster, who is the main person behind the company's operations, "I'm very excited at the thought of this expansion and hope to take my services forward to all those who are in need of them." He added, "there is such a clear difference between our carpet cleaning service and the franchise companies. We care about our customers and do our best to make them happy with the service. Our clients are always amazed at how well we can clean their carpets, even when they think that they are ruined."

The recent expansion is definitely expected to increase the company's growing customer base and establish its presence as professional carpet cleaning service in Sarasota as well. The primary reason behind the expansion is the positive word of mouth that the company has been able to generate through their services, and is now tapping into the opportunity.
