Temp Agency in Seattle, WA, Reflects on Their Love for Business in the City

February 27, 2017

February 27, 2017 -
Seattle, Wash. ? Express Employment Professionals, the best temp agency in Seattle, WA, is determined to make this season a success. This February, the company reveals why it adores providing employment solutions for a community they love.

?We want to show everyone that the next perfect job can be just around the corner,? Express Seattle Staffing Consultant and Business Developer Eileen Kannengeiser said. ?It?s what makes me love my job so much and brings me in every morning.?

Valentine?s Day is a day to connect with family and lovers and become close with those who are special. Whether it be finding the unemployed part-time or full-time positions, Express Employment Professionals ensure that any employment opportunity is just as close this season. Innovation and a desire to help others is what fuels the hearts of the consultants working at Express.

?Our passion is what drives our results here at Express,? Kannengeiser said. ?We love being a positive force for change in a person?s life.?

Express finds fulfilment in working for a community that takes pride in its workers and the results they drive. The company knows just how valuable a positive relationship with the residents can be for the economy. That is why the quality of service and the level of engagement with the community is what has earned Express the reputation as one of the best staffing agencies in Seattle, WA.
