

Employment Agency in Medford, OR Boasts Love for Jobs and Success in the Area

February 27, 2017

February 27, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Medford, Ore. ? Express Employment Professionals, a top employment agency in Medford, OR, was delighted to witness the spirit of love during Valentine?s Day and wants to express why it loves working so diligently in the city.

Valentine?s Day is perhaps the most lovely and heartwarming day of the year. It makes the month of February something special to look forward to, and a key time of the year to spend quality moments with loved ones. Express has generously taken the opportunity to reveal why it loves working in the community and helping those who need jobs.

?Branch Manager and Partner Andy Linerud said, ?Being hands on and working with our clients and associates directly is what I love most about being an Express Franchisee.?

Finding jobs or locating staffing opportunities can be stressful and challenging in Medford?s job market. The Express team is on the scene every day developing new solutions and methods that actually produce results. The job center in Medford, OR, more than anything, prides itself on its love and passion for helping people.

Thanks to the drive and dedication of the Express team, the upcoming months should be nothing but success for the workers in the Medford community.

?The best part of our job is when we can help someone better themselves by getting them back to work,? Linerud said.
