Million Air FBO to Exhibit At Aero Expo Panama Pacifico for Second Year

March 01, 2017

March 01, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Panama, Republic of Panama -- Million Air, the U.S. based FBO chain, will be exhibiting at the Aero Expo Panama Pacifico for the second year.

The Aero Expo Panama Pacifico will be held at the Tocumen S.A. Airport in Panama City Panama from April 20-21, 2017, and will include a diverse slate of exhibitors and attendees from the Americas and Caribbean. It is the largest aviation exhibition between Mexico and Brazil and promises from early registrations and exhibition agreements to be larger than its premier in 2016.

"Business aviation plays a vital role in the prospering of employees, companies, and communities they serve, for all of Panama," said Roger Woolsey, Million Air's Chief Executive Officer. "I think this aviation convention is a great platform for advocating to policy makers and community leaders, the value that business aviation brings to this great country."

The Million Air team will be featuring several new business developments, including an investment of $70 million into a rebuild of the current FBO facility at Westchester County Airport (HPN.) HPN is the second busiest general aviation airport in the North America with convenient access to New York City . Million Air Houston is building two new hangars and a third Super Structure hangar to be completed by Fall 2017. Million Air is breaking ground on their newest FBO location, in Austin, TX, within the next few months.

Roger Woolsey, the CEO of Million Air, will be in attendance at the show with a team of representatives from several Million Air locations that can assist visitors with any questions about specific FBOs or business development inquiries.

Million Air keeps a busy exhibition schedule worldwide. Besides AEPP, Million Air also exhibits at AeroExpo in Mexico, ABACE in China, CBAA in Canada, and all NBAA conventions and regional forums in the United States.

About Aero Expo Panama Pacifico

The first annual Aero Expo Panama Pacifico was held in Panama City in 2016. AEPP is the only aviation exposition of its kind between Mexico and Brazil. Its purpose is to become the most relevant trade fair and marketing forum in Latin America for business aviation.

The first event included a wide, diverse and growing market for business aviation products and services; indoor and outdoor exhibits and displays, as well as educational seminars. Events included a panel discussion on finance and legal aspects of business aviation and a panel discussion on the future of business aviation in Panama and the region.

A LinkedIn Group has been established for conversation and networking prior to, during and after the event, join at this link: <https://www.linkedin.com/groups/8438034>
