March 02, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Farmers Branch, Texas. - Express Employment Professionals has remained a top employment center in Farmers Branch, TX and has lately taken interest in highlighting why working in Farmers Branch remains second to none. The company was founded in 1983 with a business model based on helping people find honest work across the nation. To do such, Express Employment Professionals has combined the effectiveness of a local job center with the power of an international business.

?One of the most satisfying responsibilities we have here is managing the next step in the lives of individuals in the Farmers Branch community.? Express Farmers Branch Owner Mike Overby said. It?s a very fulfilling service and all of us here at Express love what we do.?

During February, Express Employment Professionals has placed a high level of emphasis on loving your job and being satisfied with your place of employment. The job center in Farmers Branch, TX, wants to further push this ideology into the community by providing quality employment opportunities to the residents. Express Employment Professionals acts as a liaison between potential employees and future employers.

Because the staffing agency garners national recognition, they can help unemployed individuals by building a desirable reputation with prospective jobs. Express Employment Professionals also offers their aid for those looking for temporary jobs, part-time employment, or full-time careers. Employers also benefit from a relationship with Express, as all potential employees are screened and interviewed before entering the workplace.

?Even if you?re just looking for something part-time, we can help. All of the services we offer aim to benefit the potential employer and employee,? Overby said.

With the month bringing all sorts of connection opportunities with it, it is no surprise that Express Employment Professionals emphasizes making connections in the community. Aimed at battling unemployment, the staffing team at Express remains tirelessly motivated to servicing the community by supplying jobs.
