Bardach Awards Attends 2017 International Awards & Personalization Expo in Las Vegas

March 03, 2017

March 03, 2017 -
Indianapolis, Ind. ? Established awards supplier, Bardach Awards, attended the 2017 International Awards & Personalization Expo held in Las Vegas. The exposition was the perfect opportunity for Bardach to reach out and engage with experts in the field.

Diane Bardach said, ?The expo was brilliant. It was a great way to connect with the innovators of our industry so I think we learned a lot.?

Bardach remains the top provider for awards in Indianapolis, IN, and their engagement at the Las Vegas event shows their commitment to the industry. Being in the business of awards means staying ahead of the competition and constantly discovering new products to offer. Each award needs to display the achievement and accomplishments of the person and each must be more innovative than the last.

To achieve such results, the supplier of trophies in Indianapolis, IN, actively connects with their customers. The exposition in Las Vegas was the perfect chance for Bardach to view what new products customers are most interested in. That way, the awards company offers awards and trophies that tell a story and are never taken at face value.

?It?s an important part of our product development because it tells us what our clients want,? Bardach said. ?Hopefully we can attend the event next year.?

Attending the 2017 International Awards & Personalization Expo is a privilege that shouldn?t be taken lightly. The exposition offers plenty of opportunities to make connections and enhance product development. Connecting and engaging with customers is the cornerstone of the awards industry. Bardach represents such philosophy and shows it through their dedication to keep providing new awards.
