Timonium, Md. ? Allogram, Inc., a leading Baltimore awards shop, has designed remarkable award items for the Centers of Influence Awards recipients. Through solid dedication and a drive to remain close to the community, Allogram has had the privilege to work with an honorable program in Baltimore.

The Centers of Influence Awards program is a key representation of the leadership, devotion, and commitment of the professionals in the city of Baltimore. The program honors the accountants, bankers, and lawyers in the city who strive to aid the business decisions of the community. These professionals, as well as their keen guidance, are crucial to the success of the economy in Baltimore.

?Designing these awards was something special for our team here at Allogram,? Amanda Gianotti said. ?We are thankful to take part in recognizing the professionals in our community that work so hard.?

The awards program, developed by SmartCEO, features an array of benefits and advantages. Finalists are recognized in the September/October release of the SmartCEO publication and award recipients are honored at the awards event held each October. Even at the ceremony itself, professionals and industry leaders are able to connect and build relationships.

Allogram, being a leading supplier of trophies and awards in Baltimore, MD, was eager to grasp the opportunity to produce recognition items for the Centers of Influence program. Staying involved in the community and fostering relationships with surrounding businesses are both goals that Allogram strives to reach yearly.

?We greatly value and respect the lawyers, bankers, and accountants in our area,? Amanda Gianotti said. ?They are the backbone of our Baltimore economy and will ensure success for our businesses in the future.?
