March 03, 2017 -
Odenton, Md. ? Allogram, Inc. a leading provider of trophies and awards in Baltimore, MD, has created amazing recognition items for recipients of the Centers of Influence Award. Thanks to a strong commitment and drive to stay enveloped in the community, Allogram has had the honor to collaborate with a prominent program in Baltimore.

The Centers of Influence Awards program is a way to recognize the commitment, dedication, leadership and success of the area?s best and brightest bankers, accountants, and attorneys. These types of professionals and their advice are vital when it comes to making key business decisions.

?We are always excited about creating new and different types of awards,? Amanda Gianotti said. ?Just to learn the meaning behind each award is so special. The professionals receiving the Centers of Influence Award are worthy recipients and truly valued in our community.?

The awards program, designed by SmartCEO, comes with a load of perks and benefits. Finalists are honored in the September/October issue of the SmartCEO magazine and winners are announced live at the awards event every October. Even at the awards ceremony, professionals are able to build and enhance connections with other industry leaders.

Allogram, being a leading Baltimore awards shop, was quick to jump on the opportunity of creating the awards for the Centers of Influence program. Community involvement and relationship building are both business aspects that Allogram strives to commit to.

?If there?s any way to get involved with the things that are going on in the community, we want to be a part of it,? Amanda Gianotti said. ?Working in this city and creating awards for our professionals is what makes being an Allogram team member so worth it.?
