

Bamboo Work Socks Now Delivered Direct to Customers' Homes

March 21, 2017

March 21, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Pussyfoot Socks, a business in Bayswater, Victoria, Australia, is excited to announce that they will soon be giving members a new offer. Specifically, they will be able to have their bamboo work socks delivered to their door regularly, thereby never needing to order them again.

Karen Callegaro from Pussyfoot Socks says: "A lot of people use our socks as work socks. This is because they are made from bamboo fibers, making them very comfortable and enabling them to avoid sweaty feet and other problems. However, work socks wear out really quickly. We have therefore created a new system whereby our members have new socks delivered automatically at regular intervals. Naturally, this offer extends to people who wear the socks outside of work as well."

The company's bamboo socks have gained in popularity in recent years. Those who have shopped with Pussyfoot Socks also tend to come back for new socks again and again. "It just never goes away, that feeling I get when I slide my feet for the first time into a new pair of Pussyfoot Socks; almost orgasmic," says George B on the Pussyfoot FB page. "Love the website, so easy to order from it and if there's a problem with filling the order, for whatever reason, the Pussyfoot staff members are on the ball with an email explaining the issue and offering an alternative design; I'm buying on line from now on. Love the colours, the designs, the patterns and just the feel of Pussyfoots; the best socks in the whole of the universe and beyond."

Pussyfoot Socks prides itself on having created socks from sustainable materials, with ethical production processes. They have socks for every occasion, including for activities and for simple comfort. Besides socks for men, women, and children, they have also recently launched a line of underwear, as well as their line of Medicores and Bamboozle products. Their goal is to make sure that everyone can be comfortable at all times, and they encourage people to start a membership account to always be first to know about any special offers.

Full details about the new offer and on how to become a member, are available on the company's website at pussyfootsocks.com.au.
