The National Veterans Opportunity Coalition (TNVOC), based in Gilbert, Arizona, announces its official launch date of April 21, 2017 with the Connecting Veterans Golf Tournament. Since starting its prelaunch operation in 2016, the organization has registered over 1,000 Veteran Owned Businesses (VOBs), and sends out an average of over 2,500 Procurement Opportunities on a daily basis.

"We are kicking off our official launch with an exciting golf tournament aimed at helping Veterans to build connections on April 21, 2017 at the Ocotillo Golf Course in Chandler, Arizona," says Ben Fatola, TNVOC Vice President.

"The feedback has been tremendous and validates we are on track and going in the right direction. Our dynamic virtual business environment allows for interactive relationship building, which is critical for doing business. We're also proud to announce our partnership with Heal the Hero Foundation," he added.

"If you are a Veteran-Owned company based anywhere in the USA, looking to connect, grow and succeed in business, this is the place to be," stated Ron Williams, Service-Disabled Veteran ? U.S. Air Force, and President of TNVOC. Ron Williams has a successful track record of effectively running three different statewide business development agencies in Arizona. He possesses over thirty-five years of military and private sector business experience and has assisted companies in winning an aggregate of over $100 billion dollars in contracts.

"Our Corporate and Government Partners will be able to connect and communicate with Veteran Owned businesses like never before. They can also take advantage of discounted membership pricing by joining prior to the launch date," he added.

Mr. Fatola emphasized, "TNVOC's online portal is more than just a database of Veteran Owned Businesses. It's different from any other portal. Our systems empower VOBs with the latest technology, to not only discover corporate and government procurement opportunities as soon as they are released, but also has an interactive environment within the portal to communicate with agencies as well as other VOBs."

Veteran business owners can search for local and national business procurement opportunities available specifically for Veterans. Instant daily or weekly email notifications are also sent as soon as a Corporate and/or Government RFP is released.
