SF Group in Pasadena, California, has recently launched new designs onto the Amazon marketplace for their mattress protector. The company states that they now have full size available.

Nell Vincent with SF Group says, "This waterproof protector is the best mattress protector for family and mattress. Asthmatic people and those who are prone to allergies can rest assured."

The company states that the mattress protector, which can be seen on Amazon at <http://http://amzn.to/2mIEenk>, the company designed the mattress protector to be made from hypoallergenic material that will protect people even from the most subtle allergen exposure.

"The company wants the customers to trust that this mattress are safe," says Nell Vincent. "There are no worries of toxic chemicals because it is made from premium terry cotton material which is free from toxins, and is lightweight and really soft."

Nell Vincent states that in addition, to solve the trouble in putting it on, He points out that the company designed them specifically with safety in mind. People can just slip it on easily to their mattress and it will fit just perfectly like a fitted sheet, no matter what type of mattress they have, be it innerspring, latex or memory foam. They don?t have to wrestle with their mattress ever again.

The mattress were launched onto the Amazon marketplace a short while ago and the company states that they were so very well received that they felt additional size were warranted. They have not indicated whether or not new size will be added in the future. For now, customers can choose either the full size or queen size currently available for purchase on the Amazon marketplace.
