June 08, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Dojo Pro is delighted to announce that they have launched a new martial arts uniform especially tailored to children studying Brazilian jiu-jitsu. The uniform is now selling on Amazon.com, and is available with free shipping.

This premium quality gi is designed using a soft peal weave cotton fabric that's been made to stand up to rough treatment on the dojo mat, while still being comfortable to wear.

Available in a range of children's sizes and colors, Dojo Pro is confident that Brazilian jiu-jitsu participants will be impressed with the quality and design features of this affordable new martial arts uniform.

The Dojo Pro Brazilian jiu-jitsu gi features triple stitching on both the shirt and pants to ensure long lasting durability. The top quality peal weave material used in this uniform combined with the reinforced stitching will prevent this gi ripping, even in tough conditions.

Featuring tapered leg cuffs and sleeves, this gi also provides a competitive edge, by making it much harder for the opponent to grab the gi to gain leverage. Unlike many other jiu-jitsu uniforms, the design is lightweight and breathes easily to keep the body cool during competition. This is particularly important for children who can be more sensitive to the heat.

Dojo Pro spokesman Brett Kraiger explains why their new Brazilian jiu-jitsu gi for children is a cut above the rest: "Dojo Pro is run by two long-time martial arts enthusiasts with over 50 years combined experience. One of the owners of our company also operates what many people consider to be the best martial arts retail shop in the Southern Hemisphere. It's this knowledge and experience of both the martial arts, and specifically martial arts retail, that ensures this product will exceed customer expectations."

The Dojo Pro Brazilian jiu-jitsu gi comes in three colors: black, white, and blue, with pink launching soon. The triple stitching not only looks stylish but makes the uniform super-strong. There are five different sizes available and the fabric is pre-shrunk to ensure that the uniform retains its shape.

For a limited time, customers can purchase this product with a significant discount while initial stock is available.
