

Ashley Bridget Launches New Elastic Holder Bracelet

April 05, 2017

April 05, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Ashley Bridget, a fashion and accessory company in Fort Lauderdale, FL, has announced that they have launched a new hair tie holder bracelet on Amazon. Marketed as the fashionable way to wear a spare hair tie, it is already proving to be very popular. The hair tie bracelet is available in gold, rose gold, and silver plated, and comes with a gift box and Certificate of Authenticity.

Scott Hutchison from Ashley Bridget says: "If you've ever worn a hair tie around your wrist so you don't lose it, but thought how ugly and dingy it looks, our Hair Band Holder Bangle is the stylish but functional solution to your problem. I am really excited about this new style of bracelet, combining fashion and functionality. And I am so happy to see our customers are loving it already."

Ashley Bridget has quickly established itself as the go to company for fashion accessories. They regularly release new products, currently stocking bracelets, necklaces, watches, anklets, charms, rings, and handbags. Each of these products has been very positively received for their affordability and high quality. In fact, the new bracelet, while only having been recently released, has already received a lot of positive attention.

"I received my bracelet and I love it," says Sandy on Ashley Bridget's website. "I have had so many questions about where I received it. Getting ready to order another one. Thanks for such a different look and good quality." Other customers emulate Sandy's feeling, as well as praise how unique the bracelet is, its high quality, and the fact that it is perfect for gift-giving thanks to the free gift box that comes with it. Other customers have also noted the fantastic customer service they have received from the company.

The elastic holder bangle is now available from both the Ashley Bridget website and from their Amazon store front. This gives people the opportunity to shop with confidence and safety, having their buyers' rights fully protected. Those who purchase multiple bracelets are also offered a lower price for buying in bulk, which makes it even more interesting for gift-giving.
