Fort Lauderdale, FL accessories company Ashley Bridget has announced that they have launched a new elastic holder cuff bracelet on their Amazon.com store. The hair tie bracelet is proving to be very popular, both for people's personal use and for gift giving. This is also due to the fact that it comes with a gift box and a certificate of authenticity.

"This is a stylish fashion accessory that is available in three metal types: gold, rose gold, and silver plated," says Scott Hutchison from Ashley Bridget. "It is the second of our three new hair tie bracelets, all of which will be launched on Amazon this month. We're very excited and so happy to see that people are loving the products."

As a store, Ashley Bridget has developed a wealth of different types of fashion jewelry. What sets them apart from similar stores is that they offer pieces that have exquisite quality at affordable prices. Furthermore, all of the jewelry pieces have something that is completely unique. The hair tie bracelet is a perfect example of this because it enables women to keep a spare hair tie with them in a beautiful and fashion-conscious way.

The bracelet is very easy to use, being shaped like a cuff that slips over the wrist. This bracelet is open and the hair tie wraps around the openings themselves. Because the ends are bent outwards, the tie will remain safely in place. Perhaps most importantly, it looks incredibly beautiful, and many women have already reported purchasing multiple bracelets and wearing them all at the same time.

As the elastic holder bracelet is open, it will easily fit most wrists. Each bracelet can hold one hair tie. While any hair tie can be used, Ashley Bridget recommends black or white ties, as these contrast with the colors of the bracelet. "We have seen pictures of women wearing multiple bracelets on their wrists, alternating between black and white hair ties," adds Scott Hutchison. "They really look cool, fashionable, and unique. It is great to see that people find our products to be not just functional, but fashionable as well."
