June 10, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Joci James, the 88 year old life coach, known as The Life Strength Detective, hit the world by storm, announced that she will be delivering a variety of new courses. She made this announcement on her 88th birthday, to the surprise of many people. Indeed, it was not expected that she would be able to deliver this, considering she had to overcome the challenge of learning new technologies, be an active senior and look after her 93 year old husband with Alzheimer's. Joci surprised the world by becoming a certified life coach at the age 70 and now she has surprised the world again.

"My dream is to lead every individual on a true treasure hunt", says Joci James. "I want them to be empowered to find their own hidden talents and gifts. Discovering this will allow them to positively impact their own lives, their families, their communities and the world as a whole. I believe I am like wine, I get better as I get older, and I still want to make a difference."

Joci went through various significant life challenges herself and to the surprise of many she has grown younger and wiser with age. Today, she is a youthful, vibrant, strong and an informed woman. Her goal is to guide others to find their own inner brilliance and let it shine. She has been active online, writing funny thought provoking and informative blogs, having online conversations and now she also has her own website, membership and courses.

Joci James believes that every human being is on this planet with a purpose. Each individual is unique and has a different unique role to play. Her heart's desire is to ensure everyone discovers the best within themselves. This is something she has been publicly recognized for and continues to deliver every chance she gets!

"Joci's brilliance is using her innate inner strengths and talents to guide you to your own treasures", says trainer, speaker and author V. Lynn Hawkins.

"Joci is a torch that helps light your way showing you the light of your own brilliance, allowing the true you to shine!", agrees trainer, speaker and author Cynthia Gardner O'Neill.

Joci James is a true Octogenarian. She is ready to grow old gracefully, rather than enjoying retirement or playing golf, she is out there inspiring the world giving people a purpose through her passion as a life coach. She believes that it is possible to enjoy ageless vibrant living, and she leads this vision by example. Her online courses have hit the world by storm and will leave a legacy of revitalizing the human spirit.

Joci wants to provide wisdom for the living. Now is the time to shine with your hidden talents and inner beauty. Discover the best of you.
