March 20, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Sacramento, CA company, The Auto Body Collision Repair Shop, has announced that they are expanding their services into the San Jose area. Through the company, people can access a range of services, above and beyond auto body repair. Since the time that it originally opened, the company has grown rapidly, and they are always looking for new opportunities to offer their services further afield.

S. Jackson from the Auto Body Collision Repair Shop said: "We really need to extend a special thank you to all of our customers for their continued trust and support. It is because of them that we have been able to move into other geographical locations, which now include the San Jose area."

For the company, the goal is simple: to be the best when it comes to automobile body services. To achieve this, they train every staff member in the various kinds of services that they deliver. This ensures that any vehicle that is brought into the shop will leave in a state that is better than it has ever been before.

"No job is too big or too small for us," adds S. Jackson. "We offer collision repair, dent removal, and paint jobs. Regardless of whether we are performing our work on a hundred thousand dollar Bentley or a hundred dollar Hyundai, we will make sure our clients are happy with the results."

Having been in business for nearly 40 years, the company has always been committed to delivering an honest, reliable, professional, and affordable service. At the same time, they want to make sure that they can expand their market and reach as often as possible. This is why, besides expanding into San Jose and wanting to become to best auto body shop San Jose CA has to offer, they have also moved into Modesto, CA, and Odessa, TX. And their executives are continuously looking for further areas where there is a need for their service.

S. Jackson ends: "People drive cars all over this country, and everybody wants their car to look the best that it possibly can. We deliver that service, and we aim to make sure nobody has to go without our expertise. We're hoping to be able to announce some more location openings very soon, so keep checking back to our website."
