June 11, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Ephraim Mettabel Enterprise today announced the upcoming introduction of Yitshar Essential Oils in the United States. Ephraim Mettabel Enterprise also plans to introduce variety of essential oils later this year. The essential oils can be used topically or aromatically to provide a variety of sensory and wellness experiences and benefits.

The company has announced that their essential oils stand apart from competitors with similar products. The company has been clear in the variety of benefits and characteristics that set them above the rest of this industry.

"The essential oils category is growing rapidly, we are enthusiastic for this launching," said the company's spokesman. "Given our company experiences , we believe we are ideally positioned to quickly grow market share as we launch very high quality, pure and natural, unadulterated essential oils into the market. We look to differentiate ourselves in this marketplace."

Initially, Yitshar Essential Oils will be available in three single oils ? clove bud, patchouli and peppermint ? and fractionated coconut oil. Each one is uniquely designed to provide a variety of benefits including mental alertness, relaxation and mood elevation.

"Indigenous cultures have long known the value of botanical substances and have used them for their healthful benefits, said the company's spokesman. Ephraim Mettabel Enterprise has partnered with one of the world's aromatherapy essential oil supplier whom work directly with farmers and distillers of organic and conventional essential oils world wide to bring this knowledge to our modern lifestyle."

Ephraim Mettabel Enterprise has made assurances that each site utilized as a manufacturer of the oils in question are visited periodically to ensure high quality, freshness, and that company standards are being met.

Ephraim Mettabel Enterprise has been open about their passion and interest in essential oils bettering the lives of their customers. Each oil assists in different health related benefits, which is increased by the purity of the products. Full descriptions of each oil is available on Amazon.com, along with prices, and full customer satisfaction guarantees for refunds to consumers who aren't happy with their purchase.

The first Yitshar Essential Oils package are available in the Americas Region this month and will feature all thirteen of the oils, as well as a diffuser. Individual products are available for sale on Amazon.com.

Using the clove bud oil offered by the company is said to help with cold and flu symptoms such as fever, fatigue, and phlegm, due to bacteria fighting natural ingredients. The peppermint oil reportedly helps soothes headaches, sore throats, itching due to insect bites, and muscle soreness. Ephraim Mettabel Enterprise encourages potential new customers to try the oils for themselves and compare them to other companies they may have sampled essential oil products through, as they are highly confident that users will see and feel a difference.
