March 28, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Pensacola, Fla. ? A leader in men?s clothing and alterations, Lil John?s Big and Tall Men?s Fashion & Alteration Shop, recently announced their search for an additional seamstress.

The store for big and tall clothing in Pensacola, FL, has had a surge in business and their current seamstress cannot keep up with the demand. In order to keep up with customers, the alteration shop has started accepting applications again. The company hopes that a new seamstress will enhance their services for years to come.

John Thomas said, ?We?re actually very happy to hire another seamstress. Business is booming so naturally we are excited to bring someone else onto the team.?

The position is one of the most important ones at Lil? John?s Big and Tall. Because the store has such a dedicated clientele, a high level of quality is to be expected. The alteration shop is also looking to hire someone that will be a good addition to their current team. Their employees' mindset always puts the customer first, so any new addition would have to be similarly goal-oriented. The clothing store also recommends applicants be knowledgeable on a variety of alteration equipment as they are well-g geared for a variety of issues.

?Hopefully another seamstress will help enhance our business even further,? John Thomas said. ?We want to expand our company even further, so more applicants could be a future possibility.?

With an additional employee, the store for men?s clothing in Pensacola, FL, aims to get back to speed so they can meet their current demand. With another employee, that possibility can become a reality.
