June 16, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Better Beyond Coaching Solutions, a coaching business in Raleigh, NC, will be running their next "Attract the Life You Desire" coaching event on July 21, 2015. This is a virtual event that will be targeting midlife women in particular in an aim to empower them to get the life they actually want. In order to encourage more women in this demographic to attend, those who register before July 5, 2015 will receive a $350 discount on their entrance fee. There will actually be three sessions with the first one on July 21 (replays available).

"What I want to do is teaching women like myself how the Law of Attraction works and how they can apply it", says Diane Adkins from Better Beyond Coaching Solutions. "Most people have heard of the Law of Attraction, but they struggle to actually use the forces of the universe in their favor and nothing really seems to happen. I want to show them that the life they truly desire is within their reach."

For many, the Law of Attraction has slightly hippie-dippy, hokey-pokey, new-agey connotations. They may have read The Secret by Rhonda Byrne and listened to all the Oprah Winfrey interviews, but they can't get to grips with it. It is also often very hard to accept that any pain and suffering in a person's life is caused by them individually. Indeed, simply reading The Secret is simply not enough to actually make the Law of Attraction work. Adkins' coaching session, however, breaks through those barriers.

"My interactive coaching session will show women the limiting habits they have in their life and how to not just recognize them, but eliminate them as well", adds Diane Adkins. "I will show them how they are literally blocking all the good things in their life, love, good health and prosperity. Most importantly, I will show them how they can stop the effective sabotaging of their own life and happiness."

During the course, women will learn how to make profound and positive changes to their life. Adkins will reveal a simple three step process that allows women to actually use the law of attraction in their favor. Additionally, she will show attendees how to truly get focused on the things that they want and start calling these things in. Finally, she will discuss the seven critical elements that are needed in order to make the Law of Attraction work.

Adkins has a coaching style that is designed to help women live beyond their expectations. This is what sets her apart from others, who simply focus on what they like to call "full potential". According to Diane, women can achieve far more than that. She believes that every woman has the answers she seeks inside of her, and Adkins' job is simply to help them reveal those answers through her coaching. Register Today!
