June 24, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Labelle, FL based company Monster Tiki Huts, has announced that their new website allows those seeking tiki hut builders to easily navigate and find exactly what they are looking for. The website launch has been expressed as a very exciting move for Monster Tiki Huts, who are encouraging all current customers to visit the site for product details, new products, promotions, and more.

On Monster Tiki Huts' new site, consumers will be able to read about the high quality materials used in the creation of each tiki hut, new projects that the company is becoming involved in, and read other customer's testimonials on the huts and how much they enjoyed the services and products offered by Monster Tiki Huts. The company has said the following regarding the huts and the quality that their customers receive:

"The Custom tiki huts offered by Monster tiki huts are unique because they are all built from both traditional and modern enhancements. Two options are provided by your tiki hut builder, either choice of natural Cypress or pressure treated pine for the wood structure."

Another feature of the new website that the company believes will help with their already reportedly superb customer service, is their "contact us" page, which offers customers the opportunity to comment, ask questions, leave testimonials, or offer suggestions. The team at Monster Tiki Huts has stated that they love hearing from passionate consumers about their products, and that they are continuously working to make their line of tiki hut builders better. The "contact us" page states:

"We invite you to contact us with your questions. Thank you for visiting our website, and we hope you found the information to be helpful. If you find you have any unanswered questions, please get in touch with us by filling i the form below and a member of staff will respond to you as soon as possible after receipt."

Those seeking premium tiki hut products can also select "meet the team" for a free quote by Monster Tiki Hut staff members. These associates are highly trained and experienced in their work, and reportedly take each and every quote very seriously to instill customer satisfaction every time. This provides new buyers with an opportunity to get an idea of how much their customized product will cost them, and also offer a method of further interacting with the company. These tiki huts are guaranteed by Monster Tiki Huts.

Hand carved tikis, tiki checkout counters, totem poles, tiki leantos, tiki bandstands, and tiki bars are only a few of the options available to businesses and individuals who visit the website. Some of these projects are available for viewing on the site as well, with photos and videos for site visitors to browse through for inspiration and an inside look at Monster Tiki Hut's finest work. They have expressed that their huts work in a number of venues, both for business and personal use, and can be permanently planted into the ground for longevity and durability, even in poor weather.
