SanibelIslandGo Media, a Media Company in Sanibel Island, Florida, recently launched a competition for people to win a three-day vacation. The winner will be announced on April 29, 2017, at 11 pm CST. The winner will be listed on the Sanibel Island Go, where further information about the competition can also be found.

Rebecca Paisley from SanibelIslandGo Media says: "Sanibel Island Go Fan Page regularly lists cool giveaways for our clients, but this has been the most popular one yet. We have received a huge number of entries for the vacation, and we know that people are eager to know who the winner is. The wait is almost over. There is still time to join in the competition, however, so do head on over to our Facebook page to join."

People can also join in the 3-day vacation giveaway through the company's website. This is a giveaway contest for a 3-Day Vacation on Sanibel Island, FL. It's free to join as long as people are eligible. The location is a favorite among many people the world over. In fact, it is said to be the best place in the world to collect seashells. Nomadic Indians first settled there some 12,000 years ago, and it is now home to some 18,000 individuals who get to enjoy the 15 miles of long beaches on a daily basis. Sanibel Island has a number of quirky little trivia about it as well, including the fact that there are no stoplights and that the well-known pirate Blackbeard lived there.

The competition, unsurprisingly, is proving to be very popular and many people hope that they will win the vacation. "I would love to win this trip," says John G.C. on the prize entry's website. "Not only would I be treated to relax by the Gulf. I could also complete my other half's last request."

The competition is open to legal residents of the 48 contiguous states and DC. Participants must be over 21 years old. Entries to the competition can be submitted at Sanibel Giveaway, which will remain open until the day before the draw.
