April 03, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Pasadena, California based company, Protiga Group, has recently launched a new product onto the Amazon marketplace. The company's Sun Beach Umbrella Holder is currently available through the marketplace.

Sarah Dykes with Protiga Group says, "Going to the beach is fun, but not anymore when your umbrella gets blown away by the wind. This beach umbrella holder is recommended to hold your umbrella to stay in place, even against strong winds."

The product, which can be seen at <http://amzn.to/2l6ZxvY>, is made of iron steel which makes it solid according to Sarah Dykes. She states that the beach umbrella holder can stand against winds up to 30 mph. The sturdy handle and sand anchor with a spring design gives maximum grip to the ground, Dykes adds.

"Beach lovers are going to find that this beach umbrella holder strong and reliable," says Sarah Dykes. "It is useful to hold beach umbrella tightly. If taking a rest under the umbrella comfortably is the main concern, this is the great product to hold the umbrella straight without any risk of falling."

Sarah Dykes states that beach umbrella holder products can be carried to the beach easily through its lightweight construction.

Protiga Group designed the Sun Beach Umbrella Holder to be easy to install. Dykes says users can simply twist it into the ground and use the sand anchor to keep it standing for hours to end. The company states that their new product can keep your beach umbrella upright from any strong winds. More can be seen on the company's Amazon seller's page.
