April 03, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Pasadena, a California-based company, Protiga Group, has recently launched a new product onto the Amazon marketplace. The company's Swift Bread Knife has become available in the marketplace.

Sarah Dykes with Protiga Group says, "It would be great to have a nice slice of bread for breakfast. This bread knife is recommended to quickly cut the loaf without tearing the bread piece."

The product, which can be seen at <http://amzn.to/2kaUEVt>, is made of premium food-grade 420 Stainless Steel, making it ultra sharp according to Sarah Dykes. She states that the bread knife is perfect to slice soft and hard bread, cakes, tomatoes, and other types of food smoothly. It cuts with less friction and more uniformed slice without crushing them.

"Housewives are going to find that this bread knife is their ultimate helper to cut the bread without tearing it," says Sarah Dykes. "Use it to prepare any dishes involving bread and loaf, bagels, baguette or work it with slicing those hard pineapple fruits."

Sarah Dykes states that the products can be users' trusted assistant in cutting bread through its stainless steel material which is BPA-free, rust-resistant, non-porous and odorless.

Protiga Group designed the bread knife to have an elegant design with ergonomic handle grip. The company states that their new product can solve your problem of cutting bread without tearing it up ? resulting in a perfect presentation for food display. More can be seen on the company's Amazon seller's page.
