June 13, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

LogicLux, a business in Raleigh, NC, is now offering their backseat car organizer with a 100% lifetime guarantee. The product has been available on Amazon and through the LogicLux website for some time now, where it has received many positive reviews. Standing fully behind the quality of their product, the satisfaction guarantee is hoped to attract even more drivers.

"Our backseat organizer is what every car owner has been looking for", says Troy Davis from LogicLux. "While it is particularly popular with parents, as they use it to allow their kids to store items in the car, it can in fact be used by anybody at all. An organized space is a sign of an organized mind, after all."

The organizer is designed to fit any type of vehicle. It can attach to the headrest of the front seats, so that whoever is at the back can easily reach the belongings. It is made from highly durable materials, which is perfect for young children who often have a tendency to not be overly careful. It has a lot of different storage options as well. At 23 inches in length and 15 inches in width, there is space for absolutely everything. It comes with a range of different pockets in various sizes, which can hold lots of items. As a result, the backseat of the car will no longer be cluttered with the various items. The larger pockets are of a solid material, perfect for heavier toys and bottles. It also has a few mesh pockets, which are perfect for things such as handheld games, hand sanitizers, snacks, batteries, books, notepads, calculators and more.

The reviews on the organizer have been overwhelmingly positive. "Loved this Logiclux Backseat Car Organizer", says Ramya. "My kid always keep our car backseat messy with her toys, snacks, books, water bottle etc., and this Backseat Car Organizer helped me to get rid of this problem."

The organizer is incredibly easy to install as it doesn't require any installation. It simple straps on to the headrest at the top and the seat itself at the bottom. Best of all, it is designed to last, which is why it is now also backed by a lifetime guarantee.

"We urge anybody to click here to order their own organizer", adds Troy Davis. "We know they will only have to place an order once, as we guarantee it will last a lifetime. And if it doesn't, a new one will be sent out free of charge and the original purchase will be refunded."

The warranty extends to the entire product, including the straps and pockets. LogicLux hopes that many more vehicles on the road will be kept neat and tidy.
